

Match & Handicap Guidance

GGC Match & Handicap Guidance Notes.

The Match and Handicap Convenor has the following authority available in performing his role at Greenock GC.

Delay to Start of Play - In the event of certain circumstances, such as mist, frost, vandalism, inclement weather which is predicted to cease or any other unforeseen situation, then a 1 hour delay to the start of play can be implemented. All member's times move back by 1 hour.

Restructure of the Competition – If the Match and Handicap Convenor considers that the condition of the course is not conducive for the reasonable play of a competition, then, as soon as is practical, he can change the competition into a non handicap qualifying sweepstake. He cannot change the competition into one where a trophy is at stake or where qualification to a Matchplay event takes place.

90% Rule – When a situation arises where more than 90% of the entrants have returned their scores (No Returns included) and the competition is called off, possibly due to extreme bad weather or holes being flooded, then the 90% Rule shall be applied as follows. The competition shall be declared null and void. Those not completing their competition round shall have their entry monies refunded into their Pro shop accounts. The remaining participants shall be deemed to have taken part in a sweepstake competition and the monies shall be allocated in the normal fashion. No trophies shall be awarded. Only those players with net scores of 68 or less shall have their handicaps adjusted.

An entry fee is levied from all participants and the money is donated to the Provost of Greenock's charity fund.

The Navy Cup

The Navy Cup is a Greensomes event for teams of two players.

A Greensomes format is not recognised form of golf by the Royal and Ancient, so no formal rules are set in place.

Subsequently, Greenock GC organise this competition using our own handicapping system. However, the rules of golf shall be strictly adhered to during play.

The winners of the trophy are the team who has the best net score on the day of the 18-hole competition.

Handicaps are allocated to each team in the following manner:

The better player shall receive 0.6 of his handicap and his partner shall receive 0.4. The two results are added together to give the team handicap.

Both players will tee off at each hole and, from their resultant positions, shall decide which ball to play from there on, using alternate strokes.

The other ball is discarded.

In the event of a tie for places from the strokeplay round, then, the Standard Countback Procedure shall be used.

This is a handicap strokeplay competition.

The Tri Am Trophy is awarded to the player with the best net score on the day.

In the event of a tie the Standard Countback Procedure shall be used.

There is an entry fee, determined by the management committee. All funds from this shall go to the Tri Am Fund and be distributed, as seen fit, by the Tri Am committee.

The winner of the Tri Am Trophy shall be given a place in the Tri Am competition.

The R C Johnstone Trophy

This trophy is awarded to the most improved golfer in the club over that particular season, as regards handicap.

Only Ordinary members may win this award and the person must have been a member for over one year (not joined during the year in question).

A sliding scale of factors are applied to all members who have had their handicaps reduced and this is dependent on the reduction allocated and the members handicap at that time. The higher the handicap the less points awarded therefore the lower the handicap the more points awarded due to the difficulty in reducing lower handicaps. This is calculated fully by the handicap computer programme used by the club that reports all changes to Howdoido.

In the event of a tie, then the player who has the lowest actual handicap at the end of the season is deemed the winner.

The Murray Cup

This is a handicap strokeplay competition played over the “Wee Course”.

The Murray Cup is awarded to the player with the best 2 round net total score.

Players are required to play over the “Wee Course” during the months of March through to September. Members may play on two occasions on any month, but only their best score of the two is counted for that particular month.

In the event of a tie the best third round score is used and then the fourth, if no resolution is reached.

Winter League Masters

Teams of 12 players compete in a Ryder Cup style competition on US Masters Sunday.

It starts at 12 noon with a shotgun start. Teams deploy players to both the 18- and 9-hole courses playing for stableford points towards their team total.

Players play Singles on the 9-hole course and Doubles better ball on the 18-hole course.

108 players can be accommodated therefore 9 teams of 12 players is the ideal entry.

Competition not solely for winter league teams as there are spaces for additional teams.

Any member may pull together a team. The event is well advertised in the weeks leading up to US Masters in April each year.
